Workshops

	Workshop Title	Workshop Summary
THE WORLD TOGETHER Telling Our Story Refugee Track	Who Is A Refugee?	Who is a refugee? And why does Canada accept them? How do they get here? What is the process? What are their needs once they get here? This workshop will provide a background to the refugee process in Canada.
	The Refugee Situation in Canada	Canada is known as a welcoming country for refugees. But, how welcoming are we in reality? Discover how Canadian law has changed since 9/11 and how this affects refugees.
	-Anti-Trafficking- Recognizing and Serving Victims of Human Trafficking	What is human trafficking? It is the illegal trade of vulnerable men, women and children in slave-like conditions, for the purpose of forced labor and commercial sexual exploitation. It is a global tragedy that robs victims of their basic human rights; a form of modern day slavery. This workshop will help you identify and safely rescue trafficking victims when possible.
PEOPLE TOGETHER Embracing Diversity Cultural Awareness Track	What's the Difference? What difference does it make?	Interactive exploration and discovery of our cultural differences and how they impact the way we communicate, work, worship and live together.
	Culturally Appropriate Service Delivery	Breaking down barriers and building bridges when ministering in a multi-faith, multi-racial community.
	Growing Up In A New Country	A youth panel from diverse cultures and circumstances will share their stories and field questions from delegates
THE CHURCH TOGETHER Journeying Together in Christ Congregational Track	Building Multicultural Churches	Become aware of five capacities that a church must develop to embrace and implement multiculturalism. Learn how to build these capacities into the infrastructure of the church for sustaining power.
	Reaching Out to Your Community	Newcomers to Canada share their own experiences and suggestions of how to effectively connect with recent immigrants in your community.
